

Access to Association Records

According to federal law, 990 and 990T tax returns must be made available to the general public. Upon request, copies should be provided in a timely manner and a reasonable charge may be made. Any other requests for association records should be in writing and referred to the Executive Director, Board President or BOMA Oakland-East Bay Counsel.